Bombay in Council the provisions of Section 434, sub section (1), and Section 473 of the City of Bombay Municipal Act (III Bo. C. of 1888) in the modified form set forth below, namely :

‘(1) In the event of any of the cantonments mentioned above being at any time visited or threatened by an outbreak of any dangerous disease among the inhabitants thereof, the General Officer of the Command, if he thinks that the provisions of the law at the time in force are insufficient for the purpose, may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government,

(a) take such special measures, and

(b) by public notice, prescribe such temporary regulations to be observed by the public or by any person or class of persons, as he may think necessary to prevent the outbreak of such disease or the spread thereof.

‘(2) Whoever commits a breach of any such temporary regulation prescribed as aforesaid shall be deemed to have committed an offence punishable under Section 188 of the Indian Penal Code (XLV of 1860).’

2. The Notifications of the Gazette of India in the Military Department Nos. 1160, 87 and 118, dated 23rd October 1896, 22nd January 1897, and 29th January 1897, respectively, are hereby cancelled.

EXTENDING SECTIONS 76, 77, 79 AND 80 AND SCHEDULE D OF BOMBAY ACT III OF 1901 TO THE AHMEDNAGAR CANTONMENT.

Govt. of India, Military dept., Notn. No. 24, dated 13th January 1905, republished in Govt. Notn. No. 311, General, dated 17th January 1905, B. G. G., 1905. Pt. I, p. 40.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 25 of the Cantonments Act, 1889 (XIII of 1889), the Governor General in Council is pleased to extend to the Cantonment of Ahmednagar Sections 76, 77, 79 and 80 and Schedule D of the Bombay District Municipal Act, 1901 (Bombay Act III of 1901), subject to the restrictions and modifications hereinafter appearing :

Bom. Act III
of 1901. S. 76
(1).

1. (1) Every person bringing into, or receiving from beyond, the octroi limits of the cantonment any article on which octroi is payable shall, when required by an officer authorised in this behalf by the Cantonment Committee, and so far as may be necessary for ascertaining the amount of tax chargeable,—

(a) permit that officer to inspect, examine and weigh and otherwise deal with the article; and

(b) communicate to that officer any information, and exhibit to him any bill, invoice or document of a like nature, which he may possess relating to the article.

Ibid., s. 76.

(2) If any person bringing into, or receiving from beyond, the octroi limits of the cantonment any conveyance or package shall refuse, on the demand of an officer authorized by the Cantonment Committee in this behalf, to permit the officer to inspect the contents of the conveyance or package for the purpose of ascertaining whether it contains any articles in respect of which octroi is payable, the officer may cause the conveyance or package to be taken without unnecessary delay before the Cantonment Magistrate or such other officer as the Governor in Council appoints in this behalf by name or by virtue of his office, who shall cause the inspection to be made in his presence.

(1).

2. (1) Every officer demanding octroi by the authority of the Cantonment Committee shall tender to every person introducing or receiving any article on which the tax is claimed a bill specifying the article taxable, the amount claimed, and the rate at which the tax is calculated.

(2).

(2) Every person who, with the intention to defraud the Cantonment Committee, causes or abets the introduction of, or himself introduces or attempts to introduce, within the octroi limits of the cantonment, any goods liable to octroi upon which payment of the octroi due on such introduction has neither been made nor tendered, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ten times the value of such octroi or to fifty rupees, whichever may be greater.

(2).

3. (1) In the case of non-payment on demand of any octroi leviable by the Cantonment Committee, the person appointed to collect such octroi may seize any articles on which the octroi is chargeable, which are of sufficient value to satisfy the demand and may detain the same. He shall thereupon give the person in possession of the articles seized a list of the property, together with a written notice, in the Form of Schedule D, that the said property will be sold as shall be specified in such notice.

(2).

(2) When any article seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it, together with the amount of the octroi chargeable, is likely to exceed its value, the person seizing such article may inform the person in whose possession it was that it will be sold at once, and shall sell it or cause it to be sold accordingly unless the amount of octroi demanded be forthwith paid.

Ibid., s. 79
(3).

(3) If at any time before the sale has begun the person whose property has been so seized tenders at the Cantonment Magistrate's office the amount of all expenses incurred and of the octroi payable, the Cantonment Committee shall forthwith release the property seized.

Ibid., s. 79
(4).

(4) If no such tender is made, the property may be sold, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied in payment of such octroi and the expenses incidental to the seizure, detention and sale.

Ibid, s. 80
(5).

(5) The surplus, if any, of the sale-proceeds shall be credited to the cantonment fund, and may, on application made to the Cantonment Committee in writing, be paid to the person in whose possession the property was when seized; and, if no such application is made, shall be the property of the Cantonment Committee.

4. The Cantonment Committee, if they think fit, instead of requiring payment of octroi, due from any mercantile firm or public body, to be made at the time when the articles in respect of which it is leviable are introduced within the octroi limits of the Cantonment, may at any time direct that an account current shall be kept on behalf of the Cantonment Committee of the octroi so due from any such firm or body as the Cantonment Committee specify in this behalf.

Every such account shall be settled at intervals not exceeding one month, and such firm or public body shall make such deposit or furnish such security as the Cantonment Committee or any officer authorized by them in this behalf shall consider sufficient to cover the amount which may at any time be due from such firm or body in respect of such dues.

Every amount so due at the expiry of any such interval shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under the Ahmednagar Cantonment Taxation Rules, 1901.
